

BRIEF STATE NEWS

Meriden.—Meriden will have its first football game of the season Saturday.

Bristol.—A chorus of male voices has been organized by some of the well known singers of the town.

Wallingford.—It is probable that arrests will be made here of some of the local saloonkeepers for selling on Sunday.

Watertown.—The scarcity of milk is causing the dealers much trouble and many of them find it impossible to supply the demand.

Durham.—The trees in Barnes Bros' peach orchard are stripped of their fruit, and the harvesting of an enormous crop is completed.

Norfolk.—The Church of the Transfiguration held its last service of the season on Sunday, Rev. Linus P. Biswell of Litchfield officiating.

Winsted.—Highway Commissioner James H. Macdonald Monday afternoon addressed a meeting of Winsted and New Hartford residents on the good roads question.

New Haven.—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Camp have returned from the Shelton house, Pine Orchard, where they have spent the summer and have taken a house in New Haven.

Danbury.—The manufacturers controlling 19 factories here, Monday formally adopted the union label, the discarding of which has been the cause of much dissension.

Stamford.—Local lawyers have petitioned Governor Weeks to appoint H. Stanley Jennings, deputy judge of the city court, vice Martin J. Gray who died recently. George P. Rowell is also a candidate.

Bridgeport.—A banquet attended by nearly 100 of the leading Italians in the city and many prominent citizens given at the Atlantic hotel Monday night marked the close of the festivities incident to the visit of the Italian cruiser Etruria and battleship Vermont to this port.

East-Norwalk.—A number of the oyster fishermen left Sunday for the natural growth grounds off Bridgeport in order to be on the spot when the law went off. Owing to the stiff east wind the smaller boats did not dare to venture out and were forced to wait until Monday morning.

An expert in mechanics who comes in frequent contact with inventors says that there are no fewer than 400 men in New York city experimenting with flying machines, and that while most of them are working on impossible projects, some of them are likely to develop valuable ideas.

from Present Location
EVERY PIANO MUST GO

ENTIRE STOCK, COMPRISING SOME OF THE BEST KNOWN MAKES IN THE WORLD, WILL BE CLOSED OUT AT TREMENDOUS PRICE REDUCTIONS. EASY TERMS ALLOWED TO ALL.

Buy Your Piano Now and Save from $75 to $125.
This Opportunity Will Not Come Again.

OPEN EVENINGS

145 MAIN STREET

New England never has known a sale where purchasers could secure such well known Pianos at such a remarkable saving as this great removal sale.

The Plaut-Cadden Co. must vacate the old building (in which they have been so long located) in two weeks' time. These warerooms contain as fine an assortment of Pianos as can be found and everyone must be sold. Most of the stock is brand new. It is the greatest boon ever known to Piano buyers.

FACTS ABOUT THIS SALE

We are sole factory distributors for several of the best known Pianos and the magnitude of our business brings us many good Pianos traded in on new instruments. Just now we have an especially large stock (as the fall is always the biggest Piano season) and among the Pianos will be found Hallet & Davis, Conway, Ivers & Pond, Chickering, Vose & Sons, Haines, Marshall & Wendell, Wassermann, and other well-known makes. Everyone of these from the brand new Pianos to the used uprights and squares must go at once.

Our present wareroom building must be vacated in two weeks and we have made the prices so low that every piano is bound to go.

PLAIN FIGURES

The great success of our business is in using the one-price system and marking every Piano with an official tag so that the price is always known. A glance at the tags will tell the story of the great savings.

Here are a few prices to give you an idea. New Uprights which sell everywhere at $250, $275, and $300, now marked at $165, $180 and $195. These Pianos are very popular makes and handsome cases.

In the fine highest grade Pianos we have new uprights that always sell for $350, $375, $400 and $450, now selling at $205, $235, $265, $325. It is impossible to buy any better Pianos at any price.

Bargains in Uprights and Squares

While they last we have bargains in these used uprights and square Pianos at from $25 to $139. Space does not permit us to go into detail.

Terms Are Very Convenient

There is no reason why anyone desiring a Piano should not secure one now. The terms are especially low so that all may share in this great event. $10.00 to $25.00 down, and $5.00, $6.00 to $8.00 and $10.00 a month will allow you to get a Piano at once

Open Evenings

As time is short we will keep open evenings for the especial accommodation of out-of-town buyers. Don't forget that every Piano in this sale is guaranteed by us and we have been a leading Piano house since 1872. Satisfaction guaranteed
